

Wyandotte Historical Society Publications

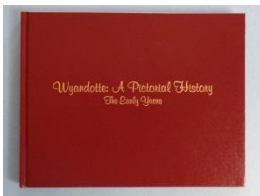

The following books and resources are available for purchase at the Museum Gift Shoppe in the Ford-MacNichol Museum and the Bacon Memorial District Library

Proudly We Record....$12.00 by Edwina DeWindt. Classic history of Wyandotte is the first and best. Earliest times to about 1954. Fully indexed. Hardbound, 533 pages. Part 1 of set of 3 publications.

Our Fame and Fortune in Wyandotte....$12.00 by Edwina DeWindt. History of Wyandotte from 1954-1976. Fully indexed. Hardbound, 294 pages. Part 2 of set of 3 publications.

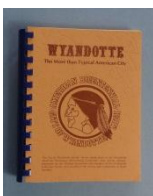

Wyandotte: A Pictorial History-The Early Years....$22.00 by Society Publications Committee. Over 350 historical photos. Fully indexed Hardbound, 158 pages. A great coffee table book. Part 3 of set of 3 publications. (The above 3 books available as a set for $40.00).

Images & Ancestors: Adventures in Local History...$15.00 by Wallace Hayden. Collection of 60 historical stories that appeared in the Wyandotte News Herald. Softbound, indexed, 146 pages. Lots of folksy takes about Downriver & Y&.

Wyandotte: Images of America....$20.00 By Ken Munson. Arcadia publication. Softbound, 128 pages. Lots of beautiful historical pictures on early Wyandotte-from Indian village to a commercial and industrial center of Downriver.

12 Bicentennial Historical Booklets....$4.50 by George Gouth & Gilbert Richards. Spiral-bound with Table of Contents. Each booklet of 12 pages is loaded with historic facts about early Wyandotte.

Good Gravy Cookbook....$5.00 Edited by Jim Treloar. Spiral-bound. Featuring Wyandotte's favorite recipes and folksy tales by the families who enjoyed them enough to share with future generations. Lots of family histories and interesting culinary delights from "Railroad Biscuits" to "Cecil's Cure-All-Elixir"-Bath Tub Gin!

Booze, Boats & Bad Times....$10.00 by George Gouth. Recalling Wyandotte's dark days of Prohibition. Photos, tragedy & humor on how Wyandotter's coped during those "Dry Years". Softbound, 95 pages. Fate had put our City in the epicenter of the Prohibition issue. From 1918 to 1933, Wyandotte was a hotbed of crime and shame.

Postcards From The Past....$12.00 by Wallace Hayden. Softbound. Over 80 historic postcards in full color that shows Wyandotte's early town, people, industries and built-in Wyandotte Iron Ships.

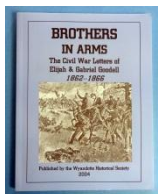

Smoke Stacks & Railroad Tracks-The Industries & People of Early Wyandotte....$5.00 by Kenneth Navarre. Softbound, 64 pages of delightful stories gleaned from Society newsletters written by several of Wyandotte's notable Old-timers.

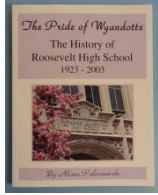

If Monuments Could Talk-The Tales They Would Tell....$5.00 by Nancy Wesser. Softbound, 48 pages filled with interesting facts about the many monuments, markers, artistic works, and historic buildings found throughout Wyandotte.

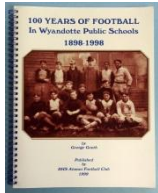

Wyandotte Art Fair History-The Fair That Wouldn't Stop Growing....$5.00 by Gloria Dunn. Softbound, 26 pages of facts, faces and stories behind Wyandotte's most successful Street Art Fair from 1962 to 2004. Plenty of photos.

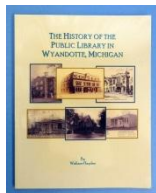

Brothers In Arms—The Civil War Letters of Elijah & Gabriel Goodell....$20.00 by Wyandotte Historical Society & Cultural Commission. Marc Partin, Editor. Softbound, 110 pages. Unedited letters & diary transcriptions of two Downriver brothers who served in the 1st & 5th Michigan Cavalry Brigades from 1862 to 1866. The drama of the Civil War is poignantly portrayed through their historic writings and observations to their parents and friends Downriver.

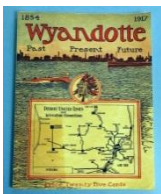

The Pride of Wyandotte-The History of Roosevelt High School 1923-2003.....$15.00 by Alana Paluszewski. Softbound, 111 pages. The first 80 years of R.H.S.....lots of photos, early construction scenes, principals, teachers & students & RHS Rifle Club!! A nostalgic trip through Roosevelt High School - The Pride of Y&. Reprinted by Wyandotte Historical Society in 2014.

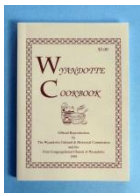

100 years of Football in Wyandotte Public Schools...$10.00 by George Gouth for the RHS Alumni Football Club. Wire-bound, 59 pages. The complete history of Football from 1898 to 1998. All the Statistics, Coaches, Hall of Fame winners & professionals from RHS & photos of League Champions.

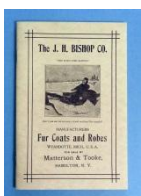

The History of the Public Library in Wyandotte, Michigan....$10.00 by Wallace Hayden. Softbound, 96 pages. A well- researched treatise that covers our early "Reading Rooms" through the Carnegie Library and on to our fine Bacon Memorial District Library. President William Clinton enjoyed his visit to Wyandotte in 1996-the story of his visit is chronicled here.

Wyandotte Past – Present - Future....$10.00 Reprint of the 1917 Wyandotte Magazine, compiled by James S. Barbour. Softbound, 59 pages. This promotional magazine is packed with information and photos of people and businesses from the early 20th century.

Wyandotte Cookbook of 1898....$5.00 Reprint of the 1st Congregational Church of Wyandotte. Softbound, 150 pages. Tried and true recipes from the turn of the century! Wyandotte's leading Women (Bishop, VanAlstyne, Bacon, etc.) offer their culinary delights that have plenty of ingredients that may seem strange in our modern kitchens. Great historical advertisements.

The J. H. Bishop Company....$5.00 Reprint of 1909 Jerome Holland Bishop Fur Company in Wyandotte. Softbound, 28 pages. Historic maker of fine Fur Coats & Robes. Former building sites along riverfront now enjoyed as our Bishop Park. Check out prices of those Mink coats!

Marx Brewery Company...$2.50 Reprint of the story of the 1862-1936 Marx Brewery Company along Wyandotte's waterfront. Softbound, 20 pages. Company's Horse Stables, boat docks, early trucks, shipping departments, and brewing equipment illustrated with fine historical pictures.

Ice Age To Today....$3.00 By Will Connelly & George Gouth. Softbound, 56 pages. Depicts impact of Ice Age glaciers on the formation of our Great Lakes and the treasures they left behind: Limestone, Salt beds, Detroit River. Wyandott Indians coming to area and founding a village. Story of Wyandott Indian Totem Pole as given to city by Wyandotte Savings Bank in 1971.

Stairway To The Seas....$2.00 By Will Connelly & George Gouth. Softbound, 28 pages. A great discussion of the St. Lawrence Seaway. The profiles of the Great Lakes, Locks in system & how they work, Smoke Stacks to identify company ownership. Keep in glove box of your vacation automobile as you travel the Great Lakes. A great reference that all will enjoy.

1896 Bird's Eye View of Wyandotte....11"x14"-$3.00 24"x30"-$10.00
A beautiful sketch of early Wyandotte. Streetcars & commercial businesses along Biddle Avenue. The Eureka Iron Works, Shipyard, Chemical plants & Breweries on the waterfront. Early Schools, Churches & local businesses—all identified. Very accurate and interesting map on sepia stock and most suitable for framing.

Additional publications, genealogy records, photos, pen and ink sketches, stationery, afghans, cat's meow collectibles and other souvenirs of Wyandotte's past are available in the Historical Society Gift Shoppe located at the Museum's Ford MacNichol Home.

For information call: 734-324-7299 Wyandotte Historical Society

Publications also available at: 734-246-8357 Bacon Memorial District Library